But guess what, he's dead. I think he died last Tues. Sept 3rd. But he is dead. They are having his funeral today Sat. Sept. 7th. and I mentied this to one close friend, Willie Mills of McGehee, and that was before his death. By the way, he died of a massive heart attack, It must have worried him to death, about you doing time for him, but dont say nothing about it because I might get in trouble, He has bragged around town to some more people, but I dont know all there names, I'm sorry you did all this time for nothing, but thats the way the ball bounces. I'm
